BUS TRIP TO PHILADELPHIA

Thursday, September 7, 2017

Coach Bus leaves promptly at 8:00am from church lot.

RESERVATIONS WITH PAYMENT MUST BE RECEIVED IN THE OFFICE BY NOON ON AUG. 18TH. (NO REFUNDS UNLESS RESOLD)

Join us for a full day of exploring the era of the American Revolution.

- ◆ Our first stop is at the brand new Museum of the American Revolution: there are several areas to watch state of the art videos, for those with mobility issues, and plenty to see for all our history buffs.
- ◆ Next stop is the famous City Tavern for a delicious luncheon. Choose your main course below.
- ◆ Last stop is the newly designed museum of the Presbyterian Historical Society, the National Archives of the PC (USA). Their featured display is called, "Presbyterians in the Revolution" This includes an artifact and info from our very own First Congregation of the Presbyterian Church at Springfield, founded in 1745 and the site of Rev. James Caldwell's legendary phrase, "Give Em Watts, Boys!"

Church office: 973-379-4320 Ample parking in Springfield church lot. Bus leaves at 8am promptly. Quick stop in Clark by 8:15am to pick up out-of-town guests. We have time-stamped tour tickets for 10am , so we must be prompt.
